“The Road to the Cross” - Sundays @ 9:00 a.m. Join us for this informative study of the Gospels of Mark and John. Led by Fr. Mike Ruggaber, this series will explore how and why the Gospels of Mark and John were written and how the Gospels lead us to the cross of redemption and salvation.

“Paul: A Character Study” - Tuesdays @ 6:30 a.m. In one of his letters found in the Bible, St. Paul says, “I want to know Christ, and him crucified”. All men of the parish are invited to join us for breakfast and bible fellowship as we learn about the man who transformed the world for Christ.

“Holy Conversations” - Wednesdays @ 6:00 p.m. Do you get the feeling that people are talking “to” each other and “over” each other? Do you wish we could relearn how to talk “with” each other? Join us for “holy conversations” concerning the challenging issues of our time. Designed by the Episcopal Church, this series will challenge us to appreciate each other as we journey to the cross. We'll begin the evening with soup & bread, followed by Evening Prayer. Come and join in the conversation.
